635. SHRI CHITTA BASU:
DR. G VIJAYA MOHAN REDDY:
SHRI CHIMANBHAI MEHTA:
SHRI N.E. BALARAM:
SHRI CHATURANAN MISHRA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether any arrangement has recently been made or is proposed to be made for a joint development approach through management education with Harward and Princeton Universities of the USA by the Government of India, if so, the details thereof;

(b) whether the Hon. Minister of State in the Ministry has made any announcement or worked out any policy for training Indian Administrative Service and I.P.S. personnel in the U.S.A.;

(c) whether it is a fact that a new training programme worked out for Harward and Princeton training would cover All India Central, Defence Services, and the executives of public and private undertakings;

(d) the reasons for drafting Defence personnel for management training in USA where CIA is very active;

(e) the reasons for not strengthening the Indian Institute of Public Administration to further develop the training of Indian Management personnel and the reasons for which focus has been shifted to the USA;

(f) whether the United Nations or any other international agency has arranged any net work for the training mentioned above; and

(g) what is the estimated cost of this programme and who is bearing the cost?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) No, Sir. No such arrangement has been made or proposed to be made by Government of India. However, Management Development Institute, Gurgaon, have offered to run a management development programme at the Institute with the support of this Ministry and in collaboration with five other Institutions in India.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) No, Sir. The programme at the Management Development Institute, Gurgaon, is proposed to be offered to officers belonging to the All India and Central Services as well as managers in public and private sector enterprises.

(d) Does not arise.

(e) The Indian Institute of Public Administration has already been entrusted with a large number of training programmes in management education including a 9 month long Advanced Professional Programme in Public Administration There is a need for more programmes. If the Institute comes up with any proposal for further strengthening, it would be certainly examined on merits.

(f) No, Sir.

(g) The programme is a self financing programme and MDI will charge tuition and bear the cost of the programme. The Ministry proposed to extend financial support for additional infrastructural facilities.

Suspension of U.S. Aid to Pakistan

636 DR. RATNAKAR PANDEY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government have precise information about the nature and extent of the proposed suspension of U.S. aid to Pakistan, as a reaction to Pakistani efforts to make nuclear bombs;

(b) if so, what is Government's information in this regard;

(c) how it is likely to affect Indo-U.S., Indo-Pak and U.S.-Pak relations; and

(d) the Government's reaction to these developments?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH): (a) and (b) In accordance with U.S. laws, aid to Pakistan remains suspended from 1 October, 1987 for want of a fresh waiver of U.S. non-proliferation legislation. The previous waiver expired on the 30th September

(c) and (d) It is considered that the fact that the waiver has not yet been given has nothing to do with India's relations with either the United States or Pakistan. Rather, it is likely that the U S Administration awaits further Congressional deliberations before deciding on its future course of action. As for the effect upon US-Pak relations, it is not possible to assess this till the full picture emerges.
